

BYLAWS OF MISSOURI ARTISANS ASSOCIATION

Approved 12/2/2018

ARTICLE I

Organization

The name of this organization shall be: MISSOURI ARTISANS ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE II

Seal

The Board of Directors may provide a corporate seal that shall be in the form of a circle and shall have inscribed thereon the name of the corporation and the words, "Corporate Seal, Missouri" and any other words or forms designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE III

Offices

The principal office of the corporation in the State of Missouri shall be located in Columbia, Missouri. The corporation may have other such offices, either within or without the State of Missouri, as the business of the corporation may require from time to time. The registered office of the corporation required by The General Not for Profit Corporation Law of Missouri to be maintained in the State of Missouri may be, but need not be, identical from the principal office in the State of Missouri, and the address of the registered office may be changed from time to time by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV

Purposes

This corporation is organized as a support organization for Missouri artisans. To accomplish this purpose, the Missouri Artisans Association shall organize and schedule educational conferences, produce a periodic newsletter, serve as a forum for interaction among Missouri artisans and provide opportunities for the mentoring of artisans.

In order to accomplish the foregoing purposes, and for no other purpose or purposes, this corporation shall have all the powers granted to it by the laws of this State; provided, however, that this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the primary purposes of this corporation.

ARTICLE V

Board of Directors

Section 1. General Powers

The Board of Directors shall have the control and management of the affairs and business of this corporation. Such Board of Directors shall only act in the name of the corporation when it shall be regularly convened by the President after due notice of such meeting to all directors. The Board of Directors may make such rules and regulations covering its meetings as it may in its discretion determine necessary.

Section 2. Number, Election and Term

The affairs of this corporation shall be managed by the Board of Directors which shall consist of not less than seven in number nor more than eighteen or as decided by a vote of the Board of Directors at a meeting where a quorum shall be present. These Board members are to be chosen, to the extent possible, from the five regions of the state, (NE, NW, C, SE, SW) to represent and be accessible to the artists in those areas. Any director may be removed from the Board at any time with or without cause, by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors at any meeting of the Board of Directors duly called and convened, when the removal will best serve the interests of this corporation.

The founding Board of Directors shall be appointed by the Incorporator(s). Thereafter, the directors will consist of Juried Artist, Juried Studio, General Members, and Corporate/Gallery Members. All directors shall be elected for a term of three years, with the terms of one-third of the Board members expiring each year. Each director may serve two consecutive three-year terms, and then must leave the Board for a least one year.

Section 3. Vacancy

Any officer or agent elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the corporation would be served. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise which would result in the Board being less than seven in number, may be filled by the Board of Directors for the expired portion of the term. Any vacancy occurring in the Board may be filled by nomination from the President, with the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors. Any director so elected shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 4. Voting

Each director shall have one vote and such voting may be done by written proxy. The President will decide a tie vote.

Section 5. Meetings

The President shall - or the President shall appoint - such individual to call regular or special meetings of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall hold a minimum of four meetings per year.

Section 6. Notice

Notice of any regular or special meetings of the Board of Directors shall be given at least five (5) days prior thereto by written or electronic notice (mail, email, telephone, fax) to each Director. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors needs to be specified in the notice of waiver of such meeting.

Section 7. Quorum

A majority of the whole Board of Directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 8. Manner of Acting

The act of the majority of Directors present at a meeting of the Directors at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors, except where a larger vote may be required by these bylaws.

Section 9. Committees

The Board may, at its discretion, create standing committees to be elected by the Board. The President shall appoint the chair of and members to those committees which may include, but not be limited to the following.

- Executive Committee
- Nominating
- Fundraisers/Special Events
- Promotion/Publicity
- Website
- Membership
- Jury
- Conference
- Education/Outreach/Scholarship
- Oversight/Advisory (Bylaws, Policies, Audit)
- Other committee as the President, in his or her discretion, deems necessary.

Committees shall be made up of any member in good standing. The President shall be an ex-officio member of any and all committees, and may appoint the vice-president or other to serve in his or her place. The President or his or her appointee shall decide all manner of acting with regard to any of the committees mentioned in this section. A member of each standing committee shall present a report at each regular Board of Directors meetings or shall send a report of committee progress to the President of the Board of Directors before each meeting. The Board shall then determine what, if any, actions should be taken.

ARTICLE VI Staff

Section 1. Staff

The Board of Directors shall have the power to employ an Executive Director. The Executive Director, with the approval of the Board of Directors, shall have the power to employ such additional staff as is deemed necessary to carry out the policies and programs of the Board of Directors. Salary, hours, duties, and other conditions of such employment will be determined by the Executive Director.

Section 2. Employee Job Description and Work Guidelines

A general job description and work guideline for the Executive Director will be prepared by the Executive Committee. A copy shall be filed with the Executive Director and President. All other job descriptions and work guidelines for additional staff will be prepared by the Executive Director and approved by the Executive Committee.

Section 3. Expenditures

Supervision and control of the expenditures and commitments of corporate funds shall be exercised by the Board of Directors, and all transactions, including deposits, withdrawals, and commitment of future expenditures, shall be made with the knowledge and understanding of the Treasurer.

ARTICLE VII Officers

Section 1. Number

The officers of the corporation shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary and a Treasurer and such assistant secretaries, assistant treasurers, or other officers as may be elected or appointed by the Board of Directors. Officers shall be selected from the Board of Directors.

Section 2. Election and Term of Office

The officers of the corporation shall be elected annually by the Board of Directors at the first meeting of the fiscal year. If the election of officers shall not be held at such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as convenient. Each officer shall hold office until the successor shall have been duly elected and shall have qualified or until death or until such officer shall resign or shall have been removed in the manner hereinafter provided.

Section 3. Removal

Any officer or agent, elected by the Board of Directors may be removed by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interest of the corporation would be served thereby.

Section 4. Vacancies

A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise may be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired portion of the term. Any vacancy occurring in the Board officers may be filled by nomination from the President, with the affirmative vote of a majority of the Board at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors. Any director so elected shall hold office for the unexpired portion of the term.

Section 5. President

The President shall be the principal executive officer of the corporation and shall, in general, have supervising control of the business and affairs of the corporation. The President may sign, with the secretary or treasurer, or any other proper officer, any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments which the Directors have authorized to be executed, except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or by these By-laws to some other officer or agent of the corporation or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed; and in general shall perform all duties incident to the office of President and such other duties as maybe prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Directors.

Section 6. The Vice President

In the absence of the President or in the event that by a majority vote of the Board of Directors it is deemed that the President is unable or refuses to act, the Vice President shall perform the duties of the President, and when so acting, shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. The Vice President shall perform other duties as from time to time may be assigned to him by the President, or the Board of Directors. The Vice President shall be the chair of the Nominating Committee.

Section 7. The Secretary

The Secretary shall - or the Secretary shall appoint such individuals to -: (a) Take all minutes at regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors and make the minutes available to all Directors within 14 days of the closing of each meeting (A copy of all Board minutes must also be posted to the Board Only website area within a timely manner); (b) keep copies of emails regarding official business discussed among all Board Members; (c) see that all notices are duly given in accordance with provisions of these By-laws or as required by law; (d) take care of the correspondence of the corporation and assist with the correspondence of President; (e) keep copies of the corporate records; (f) assist the President with the documentation of the history of the organization through events, programs, media clippings, and archived publications; (f) oversee the tabulation of voting ballots, and (g) oversee all duties incident to the office of Secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to the office of the Secretary by the President, or by the Board of Directors.

Section 8. The Treasurer

The Treasurer shall have oversight of and be responsible for the safety and accounting of all funds received, managed, and disbursed by the corporation and the deposit of such moneys in the name of the corporation in such banks or other financial institutions as approved by the Board of Directors; render to the Board of Directors and all the members at their respective annual meeting, and at all other Board of Directors meetings; an account of all financial transactions and the financial condition of the corporation. An audit of the corporation's financial statements may be conducted as deemed necessary from time to time by the Board of Directors. The Treasurer shall work closely with any staff of the corporation to ascertain that appropriate procedures are being followed in the financial affairs of the corporation, and shall perform such other duties as occasionally may be assigned by the Board of Directors. The fiscal year of this organization shall be from July 1 through June 30.

Section 9. Salaries & Expenses

No officer, director, or committee member shall for reason of the office be entitled to receive any salary or compensation, but nothing herein shall be construed to prevent an officer, director, or committee member from receiving any compensation from the organization for duties other than as director, officer, or committee member. Any officer, director or member who incurs out of pocket expenses on behalf of the corporation shall be reimbursed for same by the corporation.

Section 10. Record Keeping

All officers and committee chairs shall keep accurate files (i.e. activity reports) of the business pertaining to their office and/or committees and deliver such files to the President. The activities and transactions of the corporation shall be kept by the President and/or Secretary and Executive Director, including: copy of the Certificate of Incorporation, Annual Registration Report, a copy of the Bylaws, copy of all policies, minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors, and archived papers of importance to the Corporation. The aforementioned items will also be archived on the BOMH website's Board Member pages.

ARTICLE VIII Membership

Section 1. Membership Classes

The corporation shall have two classes of members as follows: Voting Members and Non-Voting Members. Further qualifications for membership and voting privileges shall be determined by the Board of Directors and shall be reflected in the By-laws, pursuant to the Revised Statutes of Missouri. Neither members, officers, nor directors shall be individually or personally liable for the debts, liabilities or obligations of the corporation.
